Serial No.

From The A. Custodian of Enemy Property Letter d 24th Ms. 41 regarding the property of late Mrs. Hermann nee King who died at Bangalore on the 24th Sept. 40.

It is seen from the monthly return of deaths of Europeans for the month of Sept. 40 that there is no mention of the death of Mrs. E. Hermann at Bangalore City. It is most probable that the death of the lady took place at Bangalore Cantt. Further the Advocate Mr Gonsalves lawyer referred to, also is practising in the Ct M Stn. In view of the above, if approved the Custodian will be informed that since the death of the lady seems to have been in the Ct M Stn the Revenue authorities may be addressed in the matter.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of a letter No.S(VI-07)-523, dated the 6th March 1941, addressed to the Commerce Department, Government of India, by the Consul General for Netherlands regarding the property of one Mrs.E. Hermann née King, who died at Bangalore on the 24th September 1940. If as stated by the Consul General W.A.G. Hermann, son of Mrs.E. Hermann, is entitled to half of the property left by her and has proved his title, such property would vest in the Custodian of Enemy Property. I had addressed a letter to Mr. P.S. Gonsalves, Advocate, Bangalore, in this connection, asking him for more details regarding the property of Mrs. Hermann but I have not so far received a reply.

2. I shall be glad if you can kindly have enquiries made regarding the property of Mrs. Hermann and intimate to me in particular whether W.A.G. Hermann has proved his title to the property in question.

3. A very early reply is requested.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

I have the honour to inform you that on the 24th Septr. 1940, the death occurred at Bangalore of Mrs. E. Hermann née King, whose son W.A.G. Hermann, who is entitled to onehalf of her estate is at present interned in the Netherlands Indies. He is of German nationality. Entitled to the other half of the said estate is Dr. E.W. Inglefield, Bangalore.

2. I should be grateful if you would kindly let me know whether there is any objection to Mr. Hermann's share in the estate of his mother being transferred to the 'Commissie voor het Rechtsverkeet in Oorlogstijd' (commission for legal conditions in wartime). Batavia, who exercise all legal rights on behalf of internees in the Netherlands Indies, and if not, what would be the procedure to follow in order that this matter be settled.

For your information I may add that the name of the lawyer who wrote to Mr. Hermann in connection with this matter is P.S. Gonsalves, Bangalore.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No.P/Forms/4526 dated the 24th May 1941 requesting that enquiries may be made regarding the property of one Mrs. Hermann nee King, who is stated to have died at Bangalore on the 24th September 1940 and to state that enquiries will be made in the matter. I am, however, to state that it is not clear whether the death of the lady took place within the State limits or in the Civil & Military Station, Bangalore. The address of the Advocate referred to has not been mentioned and possibly he may also be living in the C. & M. Station. In the circumstances, I am to suggest that the authorities of the Bangalore Civil & Military Station also may be addressed by you in the matter.
